

Nature Quest

50 Fun Nature Activities

Allegheny Land Trust's Nature Quest Scavenger Hunt

Complete as many fun items on this list as you can and celebrate with a summer's-end "Nature Quest" bonfire with us at Wingfield Pines.

Info for that event and other outdoor environmental education programs at bit.ly/altoutside

bit.ly/aitoutside
Take a stroll in a stream
Hold a crayfish
Skip rocks
Learn to ID a constellation
Pick wild berries
Smell a wildflower
Build a fort out of sticks
Roast a marshmallow
Touch a toad
Find a salamander
See a shooting star
Learn about the moon
Learn what poison ivy looks like
See a nocturnal creature
Go fishing
Paint a rock
Read a nature storybook
Go on a bug hunt
Hug a tree
Find a bird nest
Do a tree bark rubbing
Build a bird feeder
Start your own nature journal
Help clean up a green space

Make a mud pie

Nature Quest

50 Fun Nature Activities

Have a picnic at a green space
Make homemade ice cream
Plant a seed
Locate a mushroom
Find a fossil
Catch fireflies in a jar
Make a sculpture from rocks
Use a magnifying glass
Jump in puddles
Hold an earthworm
Make a nature collage
Read under a tree
Explore a fallen log
Hold a pillbug
Find a snail and a slug
Plant a pizza garden
Go on a one-mile hike
Explore a new green space
Fly a kite
Climb a tree
Find a pinecone
Find a four-leaf clover
Watch a spider build a web
Watch ants march in a line
Go on a "hula hoop safari"

Allegheny Land Trust (ALT) is a land conservation nonprofit that has helped local people save local land for 25 years in the Pittsburgh region.

ALT's strategic priorities are in protecting more green space, maintaining and improving green space, and providing environmental education to all ages.

Every resident of Allegheny County lives within 12 miles of an ALT conservation area. Find one near you & explore our events:

alleghenylandtrust.org